KARNATAKA PUBLIC MONEYS (RECOVERY OF DUES) BILL 1979.

Motion to Consider

SRI D. DEVARAJ URS.—Madam Deputy Speaker, I beg to move :

"That the Karnataka Public Moneys (Recovery of Dues) Bill, 1979 be taken into consideration".

The question was proposed

SRI D. DEVARAJ URS.—Madam Deputy Speaker, this Bill has been brought to facilitate recoveries of certain dues by the Commercial Banks in their lending programme which of late in the recent years advancing loans to agriculturists and other small farmers. In view of this Commercial Banks have felt that unless there is special provision for recovery of money they have advanced, it becomes difficult for them to effect recoveries from loanees and also to sanction further advance to them. In this Bill we have also mentioned the schemes which are considered by Government as "Socially desirable Schemes" in which there may not be any financial participation by the State Government but they are vital to the fulfilment of the Government's objective and encouragement to be given by the Commercial Banks. So, with a view to facilitate recoveries by the Commercial Banks special provision has been made. Hence this Bill.
